

Our Community Impact

Over the last 14 years, Jireh's Place has executed a variety of programs aimed at empowering and developing youth across multiple locations:

Location	Programs Offered	Target Audience
Jubilee Housing, Washington DC	Currently Running programs for teens	6th-12th graders
Alexandria City Public Schools	Currently offering eleven programs under the LINK Club Program across different schools.	K-8th graders
Hampton City Public Schools	Currently offering six programs across different schools	3rd-8th graders
Denver, Colorado	Offered programs at University Prep School	3rd-5th graders
Arlington County Public Schools	Provided two programs at Drew Model School	3rd-5th graders
Parks and Recreation (Alexandria, Arlington, and Fairfax, VA)	Delivered programs for young mothers, teens, and chess program	Young mothers (14-21 years old) and 6th-12th graders
Alexandria Redevelopment & Housing Authority	Provided a Teen Program	6th-12th graders
Virtual Programming	During Covid, engaged teens from Maryland, Washington, DC, and Virginia (Northern Virginia and Charlottesville, VA)	6th-12th graders
Accra, Ghana	Provided virtual workshops for teen girls	6th-12th graders